Subject: phone call with Josh Powell

My husband John just told me that he called Josh at his dad's house and talked to Josh for a half hour.

Josh said that he's mainly concerned right now about keeping his kids out of video and pictures from the press and he's thinking about putting out a statement saying that any media that prints those things he won't have anything to do with.

Also, Oprah called him but he didn't answer. He's thinking about doing her show, though, because he likes her. I told John he should encourage Josh to do it.

He also said he has no way to pay his bills so he's going to have to put his house up for sale. He's probably planning to come back here and hopes the ward will help him finish his basement so he can put it up for sale and get more money with a finished basement. He said he'll have to put his stuff in a u-haul and store it somewhere.

Thought you'd like to know....I asked John if he could try to convince Josh to leave his kids in WA with you guys when he comes back here. He said he would try to talk to him about it next time they talk.
