This is in response to your message on facebook. I knew Susan (Cox) Powell because for part of our youth we were in the same LDS church ward. I was a couple of years older than her so I knew her older sister better, but at the same time, I definitely knew who she was. Unfortunately, I never knew Josh - don't even remember him.

I'm facebook friends with Susan because I think she must have added me a long time ago. I think it was just because I'm from [REDACTED] like she is, she remembered me, even though we never did much or talked much growing up...a lot of folks do that. I accepted her for the same reasons. I knew her family growing up, though I didn't know them really well by any means.

Sadly, I have been out of touch with Susan and her family and didn't even know she was married, never met her children and don't have anything to offer here. Unfortunately, the announcement that Susan had gone missing was the first type of information about her I've received in a long long time.

Please let me know if I can offer anything else. Sorry it's not helpful.
