Let me start out by saying, I really don't think I have anything of value to add. I am also not comfortable giving out the information you are requesting.

I knew Susan and Josh seperately. I grew up freinds with her [REDACTED] and so spent time with Susan whenever she was around us. Susan was a very nice person who had a wonderful laugh.

I met Josh in the LDS singles ward and I think I went to one year of college with him. He considered himself quite a ladies man but was very socially awkward and many young ladies made fun of him behind his back.

I haven't spoken to either in years.

That's really all I have.

Thank for for pursuing this!
