[REDACTED] Susan and I were never close friends, I regret to say. My ex-husband and I were both turned off by Josh, he seemed very odd to us, therefore we never really formed a friendship with either of them. I only had one experience with them that stands out. Myself and a couple of others ladies from the ward went to visit Susan after [REDACTED]. Josh would not leave the room and would not stop talking. I order for Susan to get a word in she had to talk over him. The weird thing was, he did not stop talking. We were all looking at her and trying to listen to what she had to say, but he continued to talk over her the entire time we were there. Like I stated above he was always very odd to me, and this situation did not help that thought. I friended Susan on Facebook because I thought she was a nice girl, and wanted to keep up with some of the people from the neighborhood. I'm sorry I can't give you any first had accounts other than this. Please contact me if you have any further questions.
