I have been one of Susan's friends on facebook simply because she [REDACTED]
"family." We have only known them since they moved into our ward and I don't remember how long ago that was. We have a very close ward but my contact with Susan and her family was limited to seeing them at church on Sundays. I am the ward choir director and Susan has been an enthusiastic and talented member of the ward choir. We miss her tremendously when we sing. I only remember having one real conversation with Josh and that was shortly after they moved into the ward. I can't remember why the conversation occurred but it centered around politics and financial matters. I could see very quickly that it was difficult to break off a conversation with Josh and, while he always seemed nice enough, I don't think I ever felt like I had time to get into another real conversation with him.
