████████ Powell was sitting in the sports park by himself away from the group. I tried to coax him in by telling him the group was doing show and tell. He said "My dad won't let me show any toys". "My dad won't let me show anything." I said "Oh really, he won't let you show anything?". Charlie responded by saying "no my dad said I can't tell anyone in this town anything." I said, "Charlie we are friends and you can tell me anything you want."
