ALINA POWELL

16 December 2012 Sunday

Dear Alina,

This is your Merry Xmas! and Happy New Year! letter. Give Johnny love.

I appreciate the fact that you and John have held things together for so long. I know what you have had to do to my finances to do so, but I don't fault you for any of that. Even with a decent job you would have been faced with a huge and disproportionate financial responsibility. Hopefully you will only be dealing with this on that level for five more months.

There is a lot of negative information about me being released to the media. One of my buddies here says he has seen this before, and that they are "grooming" the public so they (law enforcement) can make another illegal move against me. He thinks they will try to come up with a reason to continue to detain me. I personally think they are trying to Set up their friends, the Coxes, in case their attempt to defraud our family (and Josh, who paid for his policies) goes to trial. I would suggest that if that happens, it needs to go to another Community, like Portland.

Clearly, filing a wrongful-death suit and beginning the process of investigating the ~~of~~ wrong-doing of these government agencies, will go a long way to back these people into a corner. The public has no tolerance for law-enforcement misconduct, and I believe there will be ample proof of that. These government agencies will ultimately have to come clean.

That's why I need your help to get those letters typed! If we can secure an attorney to represent me on a contingency, which I have little doubt will happen, we can turn the tide. Actually, it isn't much of a tide, since I don't think the majority of people see this as anything

12/16/2012-2 Steve to Alina

other than a Smeat Campaign against me.
It will eventually bite these agencies in the ass, big time, but I would like to See that happen Sooner than later.

Obviously, the "blue ribbon" Committee of eleven that was Supposed to investigate the deaths of two little boys, did not like what they found, Since it clearly did not show any justification for trampling on the boys and a devoted father.
Since our government and representatives seem to be totally unwilling to come clean, we have to get some help to bring them to account. One way or another, That will happen.

So, please re-read this letter and understand the urgency of pursuing this wrongful-death action. It will effectively put the Kaitosh on the legal and media games these people are playing. I want to act on this now, and need help.

I just sent a note to Michael, explaining Chuck Cox's law-enforcement connection. I want you to understand it too. Chuck Cox is an FAA investigator (or was. Has he retired?).
He works with US marshalls and FBI in a professional basis, and possibly has personal friendships with some. The lead FBI investigator on this case in Tacoma, [REDACTED] is a Mormon, I believe, even though he denied it when I asked him. A friend of mine knows his wife, and says she is LDS. There is a disproportionate number of Mormons in the FBI, because that agency favors agents who are comfortable with situation ethics. Lying and committing crimes to "solve" crimes are OK for these people. The bottom line is that there may be a professional, religious and even personal relationship between some of these perpetrators and Chuck Cox, that pre-dates this whole Susan Powell law-enforcement fiasco.

Chuck Cox's personal email is [REDACTED] aol or yahoo, I don't recall.

In terms of local law enforcement, Chuck Cox's best friend for years has been [REDACTED] who is now retired, as of about 2003, from the Puyallup Police Dept. (PPD). While Susan was growing up, xmas-eve dinner was held by Coxes and [REDACTED] together every year, at one of their houses. Until Susan was eighteen, [redacted] wife was [redacted] [redacted] Susan was very close to [redacted] and that woman was her best adult friend, and in fact Susan's surrogate mother, because Susan's own mother was impossible to deal with.

In the late 1990s Chuck Cox's best friend [redacted] was involved in a relationship with another PSD employee, [redacted] (I have this in my notes at home, but don't know if the spelling is correct), and ultimately divorced [redacted] in favor of [redacted]
and [redacted] reacting to his father's treatment of his mother, told Susan
at the time that "my father is dead to me."

[redacted] former employee of the PSD, was Coxes' spokesperson for a year or two after Susan's disappearance,
but has apparently divorced [redacted]
now, and goes by [redacted] last name again. Both she and [redacted] no doubt have personal, professional, and possibly religious connections to employees and investigators in the Pierce County Sheriff's Dept. (PCSD), having both been employed

by law enforcement in the same community for years.

[REDACTED] was in some kind of public- or media- relations position with the PSDs, so she brought her skills and connections to bear against Josh and our family. She and Chuck Cox encouraged and even participated in vigilante activities in our neighborhood.

If Susan Powell is acquainted with [REDACTED] it is very casually. Mike and [REDACTED] may have been present at Josh and Susan's wedding reception, as close friends of the Coxes, but Josh did not recall having been introduced to them. [REDACTED] came out of the closet on his relationship with [REDACTED], and married her after Susan left home at age 18.

Josh said Susan was very clear that her first sexual relationship was at age 12. [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] was either her first or second sexual relationship at age 12. Susan's relationship with [REDACTED] continued until she was seventeen on eighteen, interspersed with Sexual relationships with other male friends, all very short-term relationships, the longest about nine months, and most about one month or less. These are the facts of her Sexual life before hooking up with Josh Powell. Beyond the facts, it is my opinion, based on veiled comments by Susan, that she may have experimented Sexually with some girlfriends as a teenager.

Susan had only two pregnancy scares as a teen that I am aware of, both resulting from Sexual encounters with [REDACTED]

One scare occurred at age 13 and the other at age 14 or 15.

[REDACTED] according to Susan, had little or no respect for either of her parents, even though Chuck Cox was his ~~the~~ Scoutmaster in a Mormon church-sponsored troop. Susan referred to her mother as "mentally unbalanced," but [REDACTED] told Susan he believed both of her parents were "loony."

Susan's last Sexual encounter with [REDACTED] was the night of her Junior or Senior prom, when she was ^{seventeen or} eighteen.

When she parted company with [REDACTED] in the wee hours of the next morning, she gave him her bra and told him she wanted to continue being "friends with benefits." It appeared that [REDACTED] had moved on, however, even before that encounter. I can't document anything about [REDACTED] after that, except for some ~~few~~ things incidental to his parents' divorce, but I understand he succeeded in getting another high school girlfriend pregnant about that time.

Josh said that in at least one marriage-counseling session Susan confessed that she still had fantasies about [REDACTED]. So it would appear that she had not moved on from that childhood romance and intense sexual experience.

Anyway, the above is the [REDACTED] connection, as well as Chuck Cox's mutual embrace ~~with~~ law enforcement.

I hope you found this interesting. Merry Xmas, and happy birthday to me.

Cove,
Dad
