track me down, excuse me?

am i going to have to come to your house, school, where ever you may be to conduct a formal interview or are you going to provide me with a detailed statement? I'm very busy working this case, if you don't have anything to do with Susan Powell missing, then you shouldn't have a problem preparing a typed statement and sending it to me, right?
