Dear Susan, Happy Birthday. Sorry it's so late.

In the little sack is a necklace I thought would look nice with a casual outfit. If you don't like it, don't make a special trip to return it (receipt enclosed), since it was not that expensive.

The toys are things I picked up free at various conferences, for my wonderful little grand boys.

Half the Mormon women in Utah would give their eye teeth for the book, the 1910 first edition of Eliza Reynolds Shipp's poetry. She was one of the first female MDs in Utah. She was married to an LDS Church General Authority, B.H. Roberts. She and one of her "sister wives" (also an MD) left their first husband and married Roberts. (both of them) later in life. Check internet for more. If you don't want the book, you can likely get $200+ from a collector.

Also, I plan to publish my CD soon, and credit you with background vocals on two songs, "I Only Feel Love" and "My Lydia." If "Susan Marie Powell" is not how you want your name, please tell Josh right away, so I can change it.

Thanks again for your help on that. I would love to pay you the going rate for 2-3 hours of your time singing, if I ever make any $$ from this business. In the future I will try to send you a cd & sheet music ahead of time, so you won't have to learn it after barely hearing it for the first time (and with me hovering over you).

Happy Birthday,

Steve
