I been neighbors with The Powells for years but really never talked to them till about a year ago. I have had several conversations with Josh and Susan. Back in september him and Susan and the boys came by and we were talking about his R/C car he was playing with. The youngest boy was playing with the garden hose and ran the water on the car. Josh then yelled at him like he was an adult. He spanked him on the butt. Then about 30 minutes later Susan told him they need to go home and put the boys to bed. Josh acted like he didn't hear her. She asked him about 4 times at that point he yelled at her and said "Go do it, I'll be there in a few minutes". Susan didn't say anything and took the boys home. She acted like nothing happened.

Then I believe it was 11-7-09 Josh brought his son _____ to thank us for giving him a bag of popcorn on Halloween night. Then I don't remember how we got on the subject of him and Susan not getting along. Josh said Susan was doing too many things for their church. Josh said he was fed up with it because it was keeping her away from home. Josh said he only would see her at night at bed time because of work and church. Josh said it was causing problems between them. He then told us how much he hates the LDS church that he attends, which didn't make sense to me. Josh told us not to mention this to Susan when we talk to her. We talked to Josh about various things that were happening in the neighborhood.

Josh has always had a friendly personality and is very talkative and would jump on answering any questions. So seeing him on the news not talking is very out of character for him. Josh is the type that would walk up to you and start a conversation. That's how we began to talk.
